

If you are a club knife enthusiast, mother of pearl lover or a knife collector in general, then you will love this book! It has 72 pages chocked full of information on the Palmetto Cutlery Club knives that you will not find anywhere else. All knives from 1976 thru 2009 are covered with outstanding colored pictures and added description and commentary on each one. You will see which knives have accelerated in value over the years.

This book was authored by club life time member Gene Ravan. He has been a member since 1976 and has compiled some of the knowledge he has generated over these years.

This is an outstanding reference book and will be a great addition to anyone's library and to carry to meetings and shows. It is a tremendous value at $19.95.
